The Evening Post.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Thursday, August 14th, 1873.

We are having another illustration of an Indian peace policy which ought to raise a storm of indignation over the land. It has just transpired that among the supplies on a steamer loaded exclusively with stores for Indians, were a lot of boxes labeled "axes," "scythes," etc., but which, upon investigation, proved to contain two thousand Sharp's carbines and a large quantity of ammunition, addressed to a prominent Indian trader.

The principal arguments, or rather we should say diatribes, made by the press in extenuation of the Modoc outrages, were based upon the rascality of these agents and traders, and here is an instance, brought directly to the attention of the Government, which we hope it will profit by, and organize a system of inspection among them which will effectually bar all such outrages in the future. The man who would deliberately connive at this wholesale distribution of these murderous arms among roving bands of savages, deserves imprisonment for the balance of his life. By this act he places the Indians at immensely the advantage over the settlers or troops, for with their knowledge of "woodcraft," it requires about ten soldiers to an Indian to keep them in due bounds, or to punish them if they violate their agreements.

We presume the next thing will be a few Parrot guns and other infernal machines. Gen. Sheridan, in his dispatch to the Department, reporting this transtion, very sensibly remarks, "that if it is the policy of the government to furnish Indians with fire-arms, the muzzle loader will answer every purpose for hunting or the chase; but if it is to put them on an equality with the army, and make them superior to the frontier settlers, the purchase of the latest approved patterns of weapons is probably the proper thing to do."

It is well known that settlers in that country have great difficulty in purchasing even an old style musket, and yet we find this peace commission furnishing the most approved pattern of fire-arms to the savages! But a few weeks ago the New York Herald contained advertisements for "Indian supplies," in which were included some thousands of scalping knives. Though the advertisement said "butcher knives," we all know what use they are put to. And this thing goes on, year after year, and the blood of the innocent murdered ones cry up from the ground for vengeance, but our pious peace commission goes on furnishing the wherewith to murder and scalp! Is not this about time to put a stop to it. Let these gentlemen go out among them for a few months and risk their precious hides, and we will have less of scalping knives and breech-loading rifles going to the "noble red men."

Changed Her Mind.

Among the passengers upon the stage which was robbed last Sunday night, says the Nevada (California) Transcript, was one lady. She had passed about twenty-two summers, and was a resident of Gilroy. For some little time she had been corresponding with a resident of Grass Valley, a miner, and a most excellent man. The result was an engagement of marriage, though the parties had never yet met. After the robbery, and on the arrival of the stage in Grass Valley, the prospective bride and groom met, and the wedding took place. Both were happy, and so continued until next morning, when the bride claimed that she was crazy, and knew nothing whatever of the marriage; that all was oblivion to her after the robbery, except that she had dreamed in the night that she was carried off by the robbers. Her manner was excited; one minute she was in tears and another in smiles.—Preacher and neighbors were called in, and all thought she must be crazy, but in her more lucid moments she intimated that the miner was "not so well fixed as she expected to find him." All agreed that under the circumstances it would be well if the marriage could be annulled, but how to do this was the question. Pending the discussion, the young lady packed up her Saratoga and left Grass Valley for her home. The important question is yet unsolved.

A ragged and sickly looking boy, who was taken to a Baltimore infirmary last week, proved to be a German girl, about sixteen years old, and just coming down with typhoid fever. She had been at work on a farm and wore men's clothes for convenience.

That female lawyer in Chicago startled the country by pleading one case and winning it, and now she has lost four cases in succession.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— While a Spanish column (from Havana) was escorting several wagons loaded with provisions to Guanal De Socawas, it was attacked by a party of insurrectionists in ambush. After a brief engagement the insurgents were repulsed.

— A desperate riot occurred on Tuesday in the military camp, in the curragh of Kildare, between two Irish regiments. Several of the participants were killed, and many received injuries.

— The following is the financial exhibit of the Treasury Department at the close of business on Tuesday: Currency, $10,415,589.21; special deposit of legal tenders for redemption of certificates of deposit, $54,710,000; coin, $81,368,737.70; includiing coin certificates, $43,302,400; outstanding legal tenders, $356,000,000 Internal revenue receipts Tuesday amounted to $186,792.51.

— The United States Treasurer on Tuesday received $80 in currency in an envelope post-marked New York, with the following note: "Acknowledge in New York Times. Conscience." He also received $10 from Detroit, Michigan, with the statement that "the inclosed is a debt due the United States." Both were duly credited to the conscience fund.

— Victor Hugo recently addressed an eloquent letter to the Duke de Broglie, in which he argued the release of Henri Rochefort on account of his literary eminence. The Duke has replied, declining to interfere with the course of justice, and remarking "the intellectual ability of the offender only seems to increase his responsibility." The Duke de Broglie went to Lyons on Tuesday. In a speech Tuesday evening he declared radicalism and society were engaged in a death struggle.

— In the Cortes on Tuesday resolutions authorizing legal proceedings against nine members of that body implicated in recent insurrectionary movements were adopted. The minority remains obstinate, and threatens to resign unless general amnesty is granted to the Republican insurgents. Contreras left Cartagena on Monday with 400 adherents, and made a bold effort to march to Madrid, hoping to find accessions and sympathy on the waa, but his band was met and dispersed by the national troops. Contreras escaped. His capture, however, is probable. as cavalry are on his track. It is reported that a reconciliation has been effected between Martos and Sagosta, and a coalition of their political supporters will speedily follow. Contreras, with a few followers, has succeeded in re-entering Cartagena, his last refuge.

The Curiosity of a Fly.

Talk about the curiosity of women! We will back a fly against any woman. Just watch him as he gaily traverses a bald man's cranium, halts on the eyelid, and, taking a cursory glance around him, waltzes over to the end of the nose, peeps up one nostril, and having satisfied his curiosity there, curvettes over the upper lip, and takes a glance up the other. With a satisfactory smile at having seen all there is to be seen there, he makes a bee line for the chin, stopping a moment to explore the cavity formed by the closed lips. Arriving at the chin he takes a notion to creep down under the shirt collar, but suddenly hesitating, he turns as if he had forgotten something, and proceeds to an exploration of the ears. This concluded, he carries out his original intention, and disappears between the neck and shirt collar, emerging, after the lapse of some minutes, with an air seeming to say he has performed his duty. What matters the frantic attempts to catch him, the enraged gestures, and the profane language? They disturb his equanimity not a moment; driven from one spot he alights on another; he finds he has got a duty to perform, and he does it.

The Effect of Diet.

M. Cabasson is credited with having presented to the French Academy a curious essay on that somewhat hackneyed theme, the effect of diet on the moral and intellectual faculties of man. Its influence is, in his opinion, very great. In a passage of "Les Miserables," Victor Hugo liken French vivacity to the light French wines, and English ponderosity to "porterbeer;" and many Frenchmen are convinced that the distinguishing traits of the two nations may, in a great measures, be ascribed to the use of these beverages. But M. Cabassan speaks from experience, having experimented on his own person with various articles of food: Coffee taken on an empty stomach appears to have produced most startling effects. He states that immediately after imbibing his ideas acquired unusual profundity, his style in writing was cold but correct, while, on the other hand, his temper underwent a pernicious change—that is, he became morose, egotistical and generally disagreeable. A moderate breakfast restored him to his normal state, and the disappearance of inteliectual profundity was compensated for by an influx of genial and generous ideas—such, at least, being the modest testimony of M. Cabassan in his own case.

OTTO SCHUTZE, Observer, U. S A.

THE newly elected Magistrates are hurrying in and qualifying before the Superior Court Clerk.

THE new building of the Bank of New Hanover is receiving a coat of white paint. The work of slating the Mansard roof was commenced this morning.

THE fronts of D. A. Smith & Co.'s new stores on Front street are being stuccoed, which will add greatly to their appearance.

S. HANSTEIN & Co., New York House, 15 Market street, are offering their entire stock of drygoods, clothing, boots and shoes, at New York cost.

THE Magistrates of the new Board of Township Trustees having been duly sworn into office, will hold their first meeting this afternoon for the purpose of organizing. The school interests will be sharply looked after and attended to.

THANK.—We return our thanks to a friend, a member of the Cornet Concert Club, for an invitation to be present at a practice of the band, but being of a nervous temperament, we decline with thanks.

NEW ROUTE.—The work of laying the street railroad track on Fourth and Bladen streets, goes bravely on. It is nearly completed and we may soon expect to ride to the Union Depot over the new route.

THE cheapest stock of drygoods to be found this side of New York is at

S. HANSTEIN & Co.'s
New York House,
1m 15 Market street.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Mr. Angel, the energetic and courteous superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company at this place, is having the office now occupied by the Company, very much enlarged and entirely refitted. The walls will be repapered and repainted. The office when finished will present an appearance of neatness and comfort, seldom ever surpassed.

TO MAKE room for a large Fall stock we have reduced our prices, and are now selling our entire stock cheaper than the cheapest.

S. HANSTEIN & Co.,
New York House,
1m 15 Market street.

THERE seems to be no doubt but the boy Carter, alluded to in yesterday's POST, was most brutally murdered, and if it be true, the future safety of our little ones demand that prompt and decisive measures be adopted at once to detect the perpetrators. If the city or county do not feel called upon to offer a reward sufficient to induce our detectives to work the case up, let private enterprise accomplish it. A fund of a few hundred dollars could easily be raised, we think, as a reward for the detection of the murderer, and it should be done at once, while the trail is fresh.—Who will take the initiative?

THE only chance of getting a suit of clothing, shoes, shirts, &c., at New York cost, is to go to — Mild.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Gold is 115.

— Dust all gone.

— Delightful rain yesterday.

— Hotels quite full last night.

— Agricultural meeting at Point Caswell to-day.

— Ghosts walk abroad—so they say, these dark nights.

— The law requires magistrates to turn over their books to their successors in office.

— We thought we had "the Raven" last night, but it was only a big black beetle. Awful big bug!

— Terrible thunder crash yestorday, which came near scaring one of our printer to death. He still lives.

— We thank our fair friend for the sweet blossoms, fresh as new mown hay in its dewey fragrance, and welcome as cold water to a thirsty soul.

— Indications point to a very fine class of amusements the coming season. Mr. Manager Ford has secured the best troups traveling and we will have some of them at least.

YESTERDAY during the severe thunder storm that passed over this city, Mr. Angel, while manipulating the wires in the telegraph office at the time, received a slight shock from the electric fluid that passed by the wires into the office. The effect was a brilliant and wonderful display, cutting up some queer antics, but fortunately doing no harm.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Jas. Hines, charged with disorderly conduct and being drunk, was fined $10 and costs.

Jackson Davis, charged with disorderly conduct and insulting the family of Thos. Connor, was fined $20 and costs, but was, on application of Connor, reduced to $10 and costs.

THE CORONER'S INQUEST concerning the mysterious death of little Willie Carter, resumed its investigations at the Court House this forenoon, when the step-mother of the deceased, as well as other witnesses, were examined, but without throwing any light on this mysterious affair. Witnesses proved the identity of the body, and the condition in which it was found on Tuesday; other witnesses testified to having seen the child on Monday afternoon. Dr. Lane testified to the appearance and condition of the body, and the probable cause of the death—but as to who the parties are that perpetrated the awful deed, nothing has been as yet developed. There is a deep feeling of uneasiness manifested about this matter, and every one who values the peace of the community and the safety of human life, and particularly those who have children, should unite with the authorities, and rest neither day nor night 'till the murderers and butchers of little Willie Carter have been detected and brought to trial, and punished for this most foul and hellish outrage.

Raleigh is anxious to have cotton factories, and wants them right now, and the News suggests to the Mayor and Commissioners of that city that they tender exemption from municipal taxation, for the space of ten years, to the buildings, machinery and products of all manufacturing establishments inaugurated within the next two years.

The Sentinel, speaking of a very important matter, says: "We would remind the sheriffs of the various counties in the State that the law requires them to make returns to the Executive office of the vote cast for and against the constitutional amendments within twenty days after the day of election. To avoid the penalty of a failure—one thousand dollars—all returns must be made by the 27th inst."

The Charlotte Democrat tells the following: "Mr. James Tarlton living about four miles from that city, was bitten by a copper head snake, on the left hand, on Thursday morning while getting corn from his crib. The arm and one side of his body swelled terribly, and he suffered greatly with spasms, biting at everything within reach. A young man who nursed Mr. Tarlton informs us that he immediately commenced giving him whiskey and ammonia (hartshorn.) From Thursday until Sunday evening he gave him four quarts of whiskey and a half pint of ammonia, besides several spoonsful of chloroform. On Sunday night, for a few minutes, the man appeared to be dead, but on again breathing, two teaspoonsful of chloroform wese given him, which caused him to sleep all night. On Monday morning he was well enough to get up and attend to his business.

Beef Killing---How it is Done Among the Indians.

A gentleman from up river furnishes us an item concerning the way in which the Indians at several of the agencies do their butchering. The agent furnishes them with rations of beef on the hoof, which they are allowed to slaughter according to the dictates of their own consciences. From 150 to 200 head are issued at a time, and the Indians drive all but twenty or thirty into an inclosure for the purpose. A couple of hundred of the copper colored devils then get around the pen, and with rifles and revolvers commence a fusilade into the herd, taking no aim, but just banging away promiscuously, seeming to desire more to maim and torture the poor brutes than to kill them. The revolvers havn't sufficient force to put one of them to death, so they are the favorite arm.

The wounded bovines soon set up a bellowing which ought to excite pity in any heart, but these red-skins listen to it with a delight that could only be equaled if the agonizing cries were those of pale face victims. In the herd may be seen animals with two or three of their legs broken, but trying to rear and plunge on those uninjured; some with their horns split by a bullet, and others scared and bleeding in various parts of the body. After the massacre is finished the Indians jump into the coral, and there is then a strife for securing the tongues and intestines of the animals, which taken raw are very choice morsels to the red man's palate. When there is nothing left but the lifeless, tongueless, eviscorated carcasses of the cattle inside the inclosure, attention is then paid to those reserved to furnish the dessert of this carnival of barbaric cruelty. The twenty or thirty steers are stampeded across the prairie, and they are then pursued by the Indians on horseback with lances and revolvers a la buffalo hunt, their tormentors uttering those hideous noises for the production of which the vocal accoutrement of the full-grown nation's ward is the only adequate arrangement yet discovered.

By means of spears and pistols the miserable brutes (we refer to the cattle) have their bodies so lacerated that they are soon exhausted by loss of blood and the frantic pace at which they have tried to elude their murderers. When one falls the Indians then try by goading to urge it to another race; but when they fail in this they stand over the fallen beast and by all the devilish tricks they ever learned torment it until death comes as a relief. Then all the interest in the animal is at an end, except who shall scalp it of its tongue and entrails.

The squaws are then turned out to cut up the carcasses and get them into camp, not a morsel of which is allowed to remain. Among them are sometimes fearful contests for choice portions of the animals, in which a couple of them may frequently be seen hacking at each other with their knives over a piece of tenderloin. When the last one is down the Indians go back to their lodges, their bloodthirstiness whetted to such an edge that the only wonder is that they can at all be restrained from massacreing the entire post. How any set of men expect to civilize a lot of creatures among whom such practices are tolerated is more than we, with our ideas of human instincts, can comprehend.

NEW YORK, August 14.

The steamship Arndt arrived at midnight. She had 94 cabin and 309 steerage passengers; all well.

The gale continues heavy, with rain.

Of the 497 cases presented for arbitration before the mixed commission, sitting at Newport, only 87 remain unsettled, and the commissioners hope to finish these within the stipulated time. The greatest part of the work and expense is in printing, on which work two printing offices in Newport, one in Boston, one in New York, and two in Washington, devote all their space and time; the bulk of the printing in the last named city is divided between the American and English houses. In one case, not yet finished, 6,000 printed pages have been finished and the briefs have not yet been put into type. The expenses of the commission are advanced by the United States government, the share of the British government being determined quarterly and returned. The amount awarded upon a claim to be taxed at 5 per cent for expenses. When the cases are all decided the gross sum which is to be paid will be stated, the duplicate journals and accounts will be delivered to the two governments, and the labors of the commission finished.

Platt & Boyd, glass importers, claim that the suit against them for one million dollars is to be decided by an interpretation of the statutes. They deny any intention to defraud the government.

Further complications have arisen from the interference of a Prussian frigate in Spanish affairs. Eight hundred Spanish sailors, who were sent by the government from Alicante to Escambrato, to take possession of the iron clads Vithoria and Alamanca, were refused possession by Captain Werner, on the ground that there was no authority from Berlin to deliver them up. The sailors were obliged to remain in a position where they were menaced, and at the mercy of the insurgents, thereupon Werner declared the sailors under his protection. The intransigents declare that the steamer must leave Escambrato, or they will open fire upon her without regard to the Prussians.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W B DAVENPORT,
General Ticket Agent, St. Louis.

No trouble to answer questions.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.
Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptibie tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN,

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873. Front Street Theatre.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception. Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.
Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all k nds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.
Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.
Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year, $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter.
